ever late, she smiled sheepishly. "Once I was working in the art room by myself when the bell rang. I worked and kept wondering when the period was going to be over. Finally my art teacher came in and found me. I was twenty minutes late to class," she said with another guilty smile.

Jeannette's only other real problem is class discussion. Sometimes she can't tell who is talking and will miss parts of the discussion. "Then I do my homework and go to the library, look up the subject and study. It works all right," she commented. Outside of art Jeannette's hobbies include many types of sports. She likes to ski. She took ski lessons and proudly stated that afterward she won an award. Jeannette also likes to water ski. "At first I had a hard time staying on top, but now I can ski pretty well," she said. Another of her many thrilling experiences was a trip her church group took. They chartered an airplane and flew to southern Oregon where they camped out for one night. They visited the Shakespearean festival in Ashland, Ore. Jeannette enjoyed that but liked the airplane trip more.
